

Checklist 1.D

Appropriate IRB Review Forum

1. The principal investigator is employed at any of the following:

- Children's Hospital
- Ellis Fischel Cancer Center
- Howard A. Rusk Rehabilitation Center
- Missouri Rehabilitation Center
- University Hospital and Clinics
- Columbia Regional Hospital
- School of Medicine
- School of Health Professions
- Charles and Josie Smith Sinclair School of Nursing
- School of Veterinary Medicine
- Harry S. Truman Memorial Veterans Hospital
- Missouri Institute of Mental Health

Note: Other areas that may be under the jurisdiction of the Health Sciences IRB includes, but is not limited to, The University Physicians, Green Meadows Clinic, Public Health Clinics, any clinic or healthcare organization with the primary focus of medical treatment.

Check TRUE if any of the above items apply:

True False

2. The subject population includes patients (either inpatients and outpatients) in any of the institutions listed above.

True False

3. The research involves physical stress to the subjects (e.g., exercise physiology projects).

True False

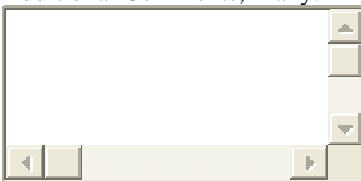

4. The research involves any collection of human blood or tissue.

True False

5. The research involve a delivered fetus, the delivery process, placenta; the dead fetus; macerated fetal material; or cells, tissue, or organs excised from a dead fetus, or hospitalized neonates.

True False

Additional Comments, if any:

6. The research involves FDA regulated activities. See “Determining When Human Subject Research Activities are FDA regulated.”

True False

7. The research involves VA regulated activities. See “Determining When Human Subject Research Activities are VA regulated.”

True False

RULE Instruction: If you marked TRUE to any of the items above, the research must be reviewed by the Health Sciences IRB. Please inform the investigators and contact the Health Sciences IRB. Please follow the process outlined in the IRB policies.

If you marked false, move to the next checklist 1.E